MVA HEALTH CENTER – FAIRMONT WELCOMES RYAN HALL, M.D.

Doctor is newest to addition to internal medicine practice

Fairmont, W. Va. – Monongahela Valley Association of Health Centers is pleased to welcome board-certified internal medicine physician, Ryan Hall, MD, as a new member of its medical staff.

Dr. Hall, who will be teaming with Dana Satterfield, FNP-BC, at MVA Health Center - Fairmont is now actively seeing and accepting new adult patients for their primary care needs by appointment and on a walk-in basis. The services that Dr. Hall offers include preventive screenings, treatment for illnesses and injuries, diagnostic evaluations, management of chronic conditions, such as heart disease and diabetes, and referrals for specialized care.

Dr. Hall received his medical degree from West Virginia University School of Medicine in Morgantown, West Virginia. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine and Pediatrics at West Virginia University School of Medicine as well.

Monongahela Valley Association of Health Centers, nationally recognized as a Patient-Centered Medical Home (PCMH) by the National Committee for Quality Assurance, has served residents of North Central West Virginia since 1958 with primary care that is inclusive of family medicine, internal medicine, pediatrics, pharmacy services, laboratory services, X-ray services, optical services, home health services and school-based health services. As a PCMH, MVA Health Centers use evidence-based, patient-centered processes that focus on highly coordinated care and long-term participative patient relationships.

MVA Health Center – Fairmont is located on 1322 Locust Avenue in Fairmont, W.Va. For more information, or to schedule an appointment with Dr. Hall, please call (304) 366-0700.
